Elves come in 60 cm, 75 cm, 90 cm and 110 cm. There are types with glass eyes, button eyes or painted eyes.

Gift transport with elves and bus

With a double-decker, the Christmas elves bring the presents to the children in the city. The Christmas tree was not forgotten either. The elves simply attached it to the upper deck. This funny scene is well suited for small action areas.

These Christmas elves are designed very child friendly. The figures are almost all equipped with movement.

Christmas elves on the ladder

52-0045-FG

These Christmas elves can be placed with a ladder against a Christmas tree, fireplace or house wall. These moving animated or non-animated figures are a nice addition to a Christmas tree decoration.

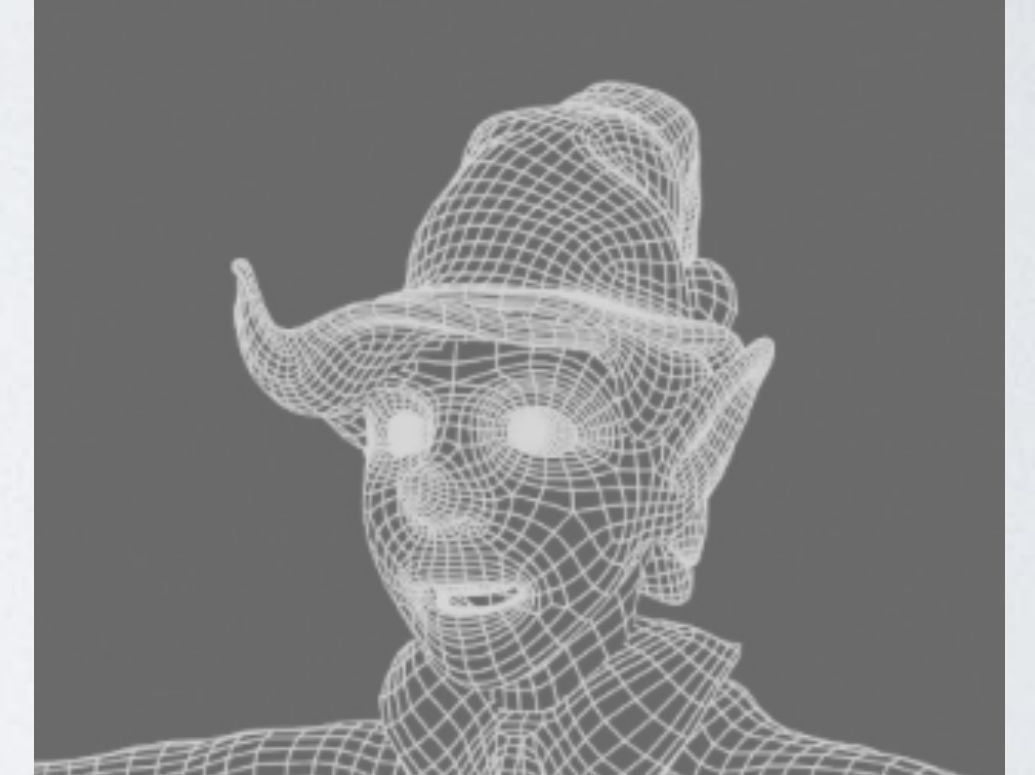

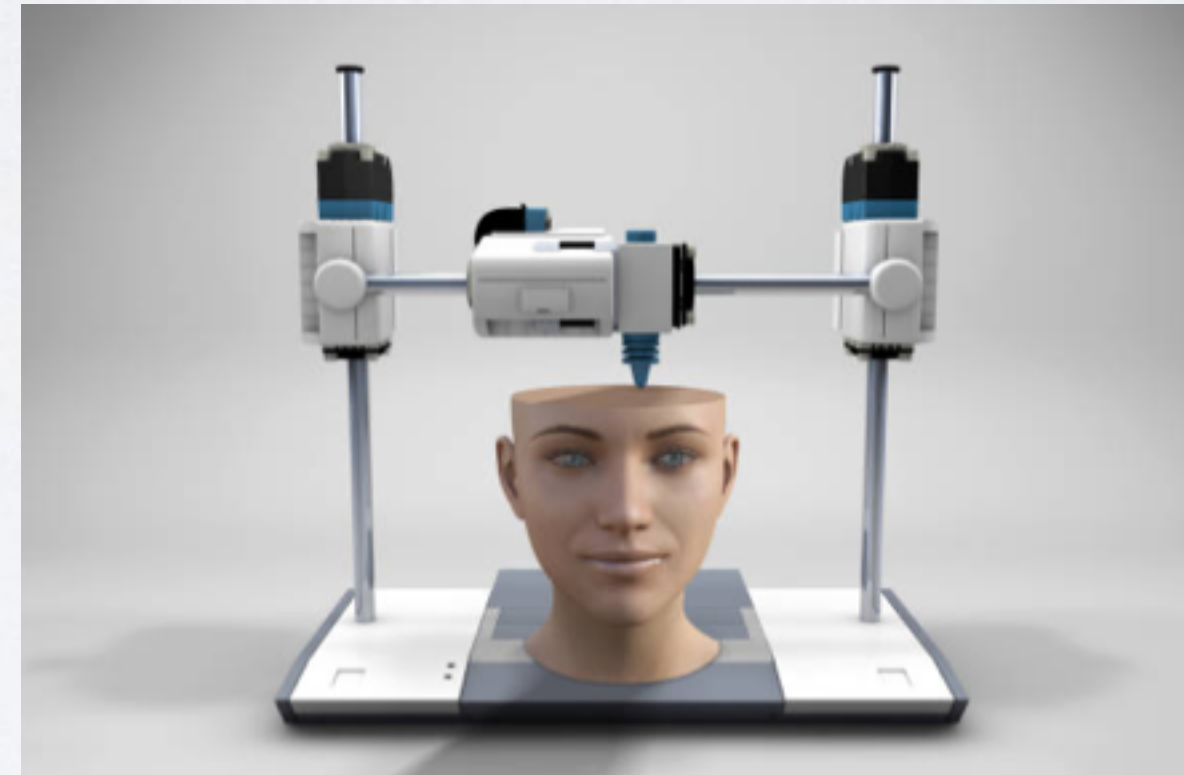

The Holy Family

Christmas is celebrated worldwide because of this family. These 90 - 110 cm tall figures are each equipped with one or 2 movements. Create a special kind of nativity play with these lovely figures.

GNOMES LIVE IN A SNOWED-IN BOOT

A gnome (diminutive of gnome), also known as a gnome man or imp, is a small fantasy creature that does good especially in Nordic sagas. The helpful little house ghost is also prone to mischief. He also appears frequently in picture books, for example in many works by Fritz Baumgarten. During the Christmas season, Christmas elves secretly bring presents to Secret Santa.
